

Has the patient received any professional services, Evaluation and Management (E/M) service or other face-to-face service from the provider or another provider (same exact specialty and subspecialty) in the same group practice within the previous three years?

